Support:

Membership dues are determined on a sliding scale and calculated based on an average of the member's grantmaking in Connecticut over the past three years. Please refer to the 2025 Membership Support Schedule table on page 2 for assistance in determining your organization's membership dues. Council membership is based on the calendar year, and it is requested that dues be paid by March 31st, 2025. We are happy to make accommodations as needed. Membership may be paid in the form of a grant.

Resources:

Membership support is on a sliding scale, determined according to each member's total giving in Connecticut as averaged over the most recent 3-year period. Council membership is based on the calendar year and dues are requested by March 31, 2025. We are happy to make accommodations for those organizations whose accounting periods require payment later in the calendar year.

Why should your organization join the Council?

We are better – and make more impact – when we work together. The Connecticut Council for Philanthropy is a community of funders working to create a more just and thriving Connecticut. We connect members through learning programs, professional development, and a variety of networks. We inform our members' work with weekly updates, research and publications, governmental liaising, and consulting. Finally, we host philanthropic collaborations, on early childhood systems, housing, community organizing, and more.

- Connect: Connect with colleagues who share your role or grantmaking interests and work together for collective impact.
- Stay Informed: Access weekly updates, research, and practical tools to help advance your philanthropy, like research on charitable giving, annual salary and benefit benchmarking data, grantmaking best practices, and more.
- Lead: With a collective voice, our network can help advance change. To support members through advocacy, we offer trainings and resources, connect funders and policymakers around shared interests, and advocate on behalf of the region's philanthropic sector.
- Learn: Access best-in-class training and learning opportunities on philanthropy fundamentals, emerging issues, and the latest philanthropic trends. Find additional on-demand, member-only resources online.
- Consult: Staff at the Council can provide consultation and support around executive leadership, programming, grantmaking, public policy, communications, and more.
- Increase Visibility: Showcase your organization's leadership, funding, volunteerism, and more through the Council's communications, programs, and reports.
