

connect 2024

STORIES TO INSPIRE ACTION

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Andy Goodman
Director Emeritus,
The Goodman Center

PLENARY SPEAKERS

Antoinette Brim-Bell
Connecticut Poet Laureate
Poet, Author, Professor

Joshua Carter
Executive Director
Mashantucket Pequot Museum and Research Center

Mark Overmyer-Velázquez
Dean and Professor of History and Latine Studies
UConn Hartford

- Opening Reception
- Opening Remarks and Welcome
- Plenary – Once Upon a Time in CT
- Breakout Sessions
  - Special opportunity for CEOs & Trustees, “The Stories Leaders Must Tell” with Keynote Andy Goodman
  - Data Storytelling
  - Empowering Community Voices in Philanthropy
  - Understanding Connecticut Philanthropy: Stories from Sector Leaders
  - Thriving in the Multi-Generational Workplace
- Lunch and Networking
- Keynote with Andy Goodman, Telling Your Story
- Afternoon Plenary – Perspectives to Advance our Sector
- Closing Remarks
- Afternoon Reception

September 24, 2024

9AM to 5PM

Hotel Marcel

Join us for Connect2024: Stories to Inspire Action!

Stories hold immense power—they shape our perceptions, beliefs, and actions. The stories we tell determine how we see the world and our place within it. In philanthropy there is no more powerful tool. Join us for a day of exploration, learning and connection!

Register Now

Or visit ctphilanthropy.org/conference to secure your spot.

Early Bird Discount Through July 31, 2024.

